The First Named Insured shown in the declarations may cancel the policy by mailing or delivering to the Insurer advance written notice of cancellation.

If the policy has been in effect for more than sixty (60) days or if it is a renewal, effective immediately, the Insurer may not cancel the policy unless such cancellation is based on one or more of the following reasons:

- (1) Nonpayment of premium, including payment due on a prior policy issued by the Insurer and due during the current policy term covering the same risks.
- (2) A judgement by a court or an administrative tribunal that the named Insured has violated any law of this state or of the United States having as one of its necessary elements an act which materially increases any of the risks insured against.
- (3) Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation by either of the following:
  - a) The Insured or Other Insured(s) or his or her representative in obtaining the insurance; or
  - b) The named Insured or his or her representative in pursuing a claim under the policy.
- (4) Discovery of willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions, or of any violations of state laws or regulations establishing safety standards, by the named Insured or Other Insured(s) or a representative of same, which materially increase any of the risks insured against.
- (5) Failure by the named Insured or Other Insured(s) or a representative of same to implement reasonable loss control requirements which were agreed to by the Insured as a condition of policy issuance or which were conditions precedent to the use by the Insurer of a particular rate or rating plan if the failure materially increases any of the risks insured against.

- (6) A determination by the commissioner that the loss of, or changes in, an insurer's reinsurance covering all or part of the risk would threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the Insurer.
- (7) A determination by the commissioner that a continuation of the policy coverage could place the Insurer in violation of the laws of this state or the state of its domicile or that the continuation of coverage would threaten the solvency of the Insurer.
- (8) A change by the named Insured or Other Insured(s) or a representative of same in the activities or property of the commercial or industrial enterprise which results in a material added risk, a materially increased risk or a materially changed risk, unless the added, increased, or changed risk is included in the policy.

Notice of cancellation shall be delivered or mailed to the producer of record and the named Insured at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of cancellation. Where cancellation is for nonpayment of premium or fraud, notice shall be given no less than ten (10) days prior to the effective date of cancellation.

NONRENEWAL

If the Insurer decides not to renew the policy, the Insurer shall mail or deliver to the producer of record and the named Insured notice of nonrenewal at least sixty (60) days but no more than 120 days prior to the end of the policy period. The notice shall contain the reason for nonrenewal of the policy.

RENEWAL

If a policy has been in effect for more than sixty (60) days or if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately no increase in premium, reduction in limits, or change in the conditions of coverage shall be effective during the policy period unless based upon one of the following reasons:

- (2) Failure by the named Insured or Other Insured(s) to implement reasonable loss control requirements which were agreed to by the Insured as a condition of policy issuance or which were conditions precedent to the use by the Insurer of a particular rate or rating plan, if the failure materially increases any of the risks insured against.
- (3) A determination by the commissioner that loss of or changes in an insurer's reinsurance covering all or part of the risk covered by the policy would threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the Insurer unless the change in the terms or conditions or rate upon which the premium is based is permitted.
- (4) A change by the named Insured or Other Insured(s) in the activities or property of the commercial or industrial enterprise which results in a materially added risks, a materially increased risk, or materially changed risk, unless the added, increased, or changed risk is included in the policy.
