Carefully read your policy, including the endorsements attached to your policy.

The Declarations are usually the first page(s) of your policy and typically provide a snapshot of basic coverage information, including your specific coverage and limits of insurance.

This Policy contains insuring agreement(s) that generally describe what your policy may cover.

The Who Is An Insured Provision outlines who is covered under this Policy.

Exclusions, which generally describe what your insurance does not apply to, may vary by type of coverage. The Conditions section generally addresses various aspects relevant to coverage under your policy, including each party's rights and obligations.

The amount we will pay is limited, as described in the Limits Of Insurance Provision. Under the Supplementary Payments Provision, we cover certain costs and expenses that do not reduce your limit of insurance.

Endorsements may be attached that modify provisions contained elsewhere in the Policy. Refer to the Declarations for a list of forms and endorsements attached to this Policy.

This Notice is just a summary of certain coverages and exclusions under your policy. It is not an exhaustive list. Each coverage is subject to the specific terms, conditions, exclusions, limits and deductibles set forth in your policy and the Declarations page, which is the page of your policy that provides a listing of the coverages and limits of those coverages that you have purchased. You should read your policy for complete information regarding your coverage. Should you have any questions regarding this Notice, your policy, its coverages or the limits of coverage, you should contact your insurance producer or agent or your insurance company directly to discuss your policy with them.
