Comments:

Thank you for your submission.

This office takes the following position regarding Payments for the Adoption or Non-Adoption of a "Rating Organization" (such as ISO):

- 1- A non-adoption is considered an Informational Filing and does not require a fee.
- 2- An adoption of a rating organization filing at a different date than the one established by the rating organization is considered a filing and a fee is required.

In the future, if you are going to non-adopt an ISO filing, you do not need to include a fee. It is considered an informational filing. When you adopt or if you adopted at a different date from ISO then a fee will be required.

Best regards,
