Identity Theft Sublimit Endorsement – Illinois

This endorsement modifies coverage provided under the Accountants & Consultants Professional Liability Insurance Policy.

For purposes of this endorsement only, this policy is modified as follows:

- Paragraph 8.9 Damages of Section 8. DEFINITIONS is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:
 - 8.9 Damages means a monetary amount for which you may be held legally liable, including compensatory amounts, as well as any amounts to correct, monitor, and safeguard personal identities, other than your personal identity, that you have a legal liability to protect from identity theft. Damages shall include prejudgment interest, judgments, awards, or settlements negotiated with our approval. Damages shall also include punitive or exemplary damages or the multiple portion of any multiplied damage award if such damages are insurable pursuant to applicable law. Damages do not include:
 - 8.9.1 statutory or regulatory fines or penalties levied against you; or
 - 8.9.2 any of the following deemed uninsurable pursuant to any applicable law: fines, sanctions, taxes, penalties or awards, or punitive or exemplary damages or the multiple portion of any multiplied damage award.
- The maximum amount of aggregate Damages payable under this policy for any amounts to correct, monitor, and/or safeguard personal identities, other than your personal identity, that you have a legal liability to protect from identity theft, including but not limited to judgments, awards, settlements negotiated with our approval, and/or punitive or exemplary damages or the multiple portion of any multiplied damage award if such damages are insurable pursuant to applicable law, will be $100,000.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Illinois law governs the interpretation of this Policy, directly assessed punitive damages are uninsurable.

All other terms and conditions of this Policy remain unchanged.
