1. Insuring Agreement

- a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of an "insured event" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "claim" seeking those damages even if the allegations of the "suit" are groundless, false or fraudulent. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "claim" seeking damages for an "insured event" to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any alleged "insured event" and settle any "claim" that may result. But:

resource directors, in-house counsel, or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of a "claim" had knowledge of any actual or alleged "insured event", or of any circumstance(s) that could reasonably give rise to a "claim" under this endorsement. If such "executive officers", directors, principals, partners, claim managers, insurance managers, risk managers, human resource directors, in-house counsel, or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of a "claim" had such knowledge prior to the effective date of this policy of any "insured event" or of any circumstance(s) that could reasonably give rise to a "claim" under this endorsement, then any continuation, change or resumption of such "insured event" or circumstance during or after the policy period will be deemed to have been known prior to this policy period; and

- (4) The "insured event" must occur within the "coverage territory".
- d. An "insured event" will be deemed to have been known to have occurred at the earliest time when any "executive officer", director, principal, partner, claim manager, insurance manager, risk manager, human resource director, in-house counsel, or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of a "claim":
