

Commercial Automobile Notice - Multiple Coverage
Forms

If you have purchased coverage for autos garaged in more than one state, you may find that the attached packet includes more than one commercial auto policy. You may also notice different edition dates of the same coverage form and endorsements. This is due to policy issuance system requirements and because a single commercial auto coverage form has not been approved for use in all states.

Please contact your agent if you have any questions regarding your policy.